A late photograph is herewith presented of Miss Kathleen Parlow, the celebrated violinist, who is to give a recital here March 5 as a number of the Marcano Club's winter course of musical entertainments.

"Kathleen Parlow," says a well known writer, "has all of Elman's good points in her playing, and none of his bad ones, for had features are not to be found in her work. But to this one must add reference to her remarkable personality. This is reflected in her playing, her manner of speech, her whole mode of living. Without having in her manner the slightest trace of impertinence such as marks the playing of so many violin celebrities, she nevertheless possesses an air of assurance that makes the audience feel it is hearing not a sensation but an artist of the foremost rank.

As an appreciator of the music written for her instrument, Miss Parlow's taste is in keeping with the characteristic traits mentioned above. She is an ardent Brahmsite, and enjoys Brahms' glorious concerto every time she plays it. In fact, all of the great German music has a special fascination for her, and she considers the master one of the foremost composers of all time. The Tchaikowsky concerto as she plays it always takes exceptionally well with her American audiences, while the works of Bruch, Beethoven, Mendelssohn, Glazounov and other masters are all at her command.

Joseph Hart is to produce a sketch founded on the "Silk Hat Harry" cartoons.

The third reel of "Our Mutual Girl" is showing today at the Orpheum theater. Miss Norma Phillips again displays her wonderful ability as an actress in this serial offering, which should attract the attention of every moving picture fan. "The Portrait of Anita," a pleasing two-reel majestic play, is also shown. Miss Billie West has the lead, supported by new

Make This and Try It for Coughs

This Home-Made Remedy has no Equal for Prompt Results.

Mix one pint of granulated sugar with ½ pint of warm water, stir for 2 minutes. Put 2½ ounces of Pinex (fifty cents worth) in a pint bottle; then add the Sugar Syrup. Take a teaspoonful every one or two hours.

This simple remedy takes hold of a cough more quickly than anything else you ever used. Usually conquers an ordinary cough in about 24 hours. Splendid, too, for whooping cough, spasmodic croup and bronchitis. It stimulates the appetite and is slightly laxative, which helps end a cough.

This makes more than a bushel of cough syrup than you could buy ready made for $2.50. It keeps perfectly and tastes pleasant.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, and is rich in quinine and other natural pine elements which are so healing to the membranes. Other preparations will not work in this plan. Making cough syrup with Pinex and sugar syrup (or strained honey) has proven so popular throughout the United States and Canada that it is often imitated. But the old, successful mixture has never been equalled.

A guaranty of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. Your druggist has Pinex or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Majestic stars Saturday the Orpheum will present another new Warner feature entitled "Olga Treskoff," featuring Miss Helen Gardner in a thrilling Russian play.

The dramatization of "Bringing Up Father" is to open in Utica early next month.

Charles Klein's play, "The Money-makers," will be produced in the fall. He is writing another drama entitled "The Outsiders."

"Mutt and Jeff in Panama," which appears soon at the Robinson Grand, is divided into three acts and three scenes and is by that versatile author, Owen Davis, with lyrics and music by Will H. Cobb and Leo Edwards. The production is as usual sponsored by Manager Gus Hill, who was the first to see the possibilities of "Mutt and Jeff" in stagedom. The company this year is exceptionally strong, harboring as it does over fifty people, all capable in their respective fields of endeavor. There are twenty girls, comedians who can rouse incessant laughter, performers who can engross and entertain and a scenic investiture out of the beaten path.

Laurence Irving and Mabel Hackney opened their tour this month in Montreal in a repertoire including "The Unwritten Law," "The Importance of Being Earnest" and "The Lily."

No matter how good a musical comedy may be in itself, it will never succeed unless there is a god chorus. That is what J. W. Gorman, whose company of comedians appear the first half of next week at the Robinson Grand, has found out after years of experience, so that he has always aimed to have the choruses in his many musical comedies. One of the strong features of the show, "Good looking girls, good looking both in face and figure, are what he has provided. But they do more than look pretty. They are able to sing, act and dance.

For the last half of the week, the Odeon theater is offering Colthide and Montrose in a splendid novelty act and Moore and St. Clair in clever singing and dancing stunts. The photoplays shown today are exceptionally good. They are "A Message from Across the Sea," by the Selig Company, "Cutey's Vacation," a fine Vitagraph offering with Wallie Van, Lillian Walker and Flora Finch in the leading parts; and "The Sherlock Holmes Girl," a dandy Edison production. No. 4 of "The Adventures of Kathlyn" will be shown shown Thursday, February 26.

Laurette Taylor and members of her company playing in "Peg O' My Heart" are to give four playlets at special matinee performances. They are called "The Forbidden Guest," "Just as Well," "The Day of Dupes" and "Happiness."

Rupert Hughes has written a farce, called "Celluloid Sara." The scene is laid in a moving picture studio.

Renne Boucicault, daughter of the late Aubrey Boucicault, has been engaged by Henry W. Savage for the play, "Along Came Ruth."

Grace George is rehearsing a play by Desmond Coke, an English writer, called "The Hour of Life." The piece will be produced shortly.

The management of the Lyceum theater has engaged the services of Jonathan Hove, a sweet singer, who will sing at each performance, commencing today. The motion picture shown today are "One of the Bravest," a spectacular two-reel feature; "The Saint and the Sinner," a Powers comedy; and "The Garrison Joke." The big crowds that have been attending the Lyceum shows that the public is appreciative of the good photoplays being given there.

OIL

And Gas Wells in This County Are Being Started Now in Goodly Number.

This county is completing and starting more oil and gas wells at this time than any other in the state. Sardis is the only district that is furnishing anything better than light production. The best district the wells are far above the average and show very creditable staying qualities. A few pools like those on Rock Camp run and Big Elk creek would go a long way toward supplanting the declining production in other districts. No other section in this state is completing enough wells and of sufficient size to keep from showing a decline in production.

Near Salem, in Ten Mile district, Haffheimer & Brast have drilled a second test on the Randolph belt. It was roughed in the Gordon sand and will have a very light pump. When first drilled through the sand it showed very little oil but improved after it was shot and will not prove a failure. In Sardis district, Strother Bros. have drilled a test on their own farm through the Big Injun sand and have developed a good gasser. The Hope Gas Company holds the gas right on this farm and the well has been turned over to that company.

A daily labor paper will be published by labor union in Porto Rico, according to 10,000 produced 90,000 pounds of cinchona bark, compared with 15,000,000 pounds in 1913.

WESLEYAN

Preparing for a Game with the Scholastics Which Will Be Played in Buckhannon.

BUCKHANNON, Feb. 19.—The Wesleyan basketball team is away this week on its trip through the central West and will return home Sunday evening to begin preparations to do battle with the Clarksburg Scholastics for the championship of the state. The game is to be played on the Wesleyan floor Wednesday night, February 25, and from all appearances will be the basketball classic of the state.

Clarksburg won from Wesleyan on the Clarksburg floor a month ago by the rather large score of 132 to 15. But other scores have shown that this is hardly a fair rating and that when Clarksburg comes to the Wesleyan floor a great contest will be on.

Wesleyan won from Davis-Elkins College at Buckhannon by the score of 40 to 25, while the Scholastics lost to Davis-Elkins at Elkins by a score of 53-17. This "dope" would indicate that Clarksburg was outclassed, but such is not the case as Clarksburg was no doubt handicapped by the playing floor at Elkins and when they get on Wesleyan's regulation floor will show their class. No one at Wesleyan underestimates the Scholastics, and it is freely admitted that it certainly looks that the team that beats Clarksburg will be the state champion.

Clarksburg will run a special train here for the game, and arrangements are being made to accommodate the largest crowd of the year. Only a limited number of tickets will be sold, and when these are gone the sale will be closed. Advance sales are going on in Buckhannon and those desiring reservations may have them by writing the same book store, Buckhannon.

BOWLING NEWS

WALLACE, Feb. 19.—The Wallace Duck Pin League was opened here last night on the Tetrack alleys with great success. The first contest was between the Doves and Cubs, the doves winning by 110 pins. The result of the game was in doubt from start to finish. Both sides rolled exceedingly well, considering what little practice they have had. Davis had high score and Frank Smith high average for the evening.

CRAZY

Woman Said to Be from Clarksburg Excites Attention at Grafton.

GRAFTON, Feb. 19.—Shortly after the arrival of a G. and A. accommodation train local railroad officials saw a woman standing on the bridge across from Main street at Bridge street to the South Side. The woman could be seen waving her arms about and acting in a very peculiar manner. Accompanied by a boy, E. D. Griffin, train master, went out through the yards and met her coming down the steps. She gave all appearances of being demented, waving her arms about and talking incoherently on various subjects. Griffin urged the woman to go back upon the bridge as he warned her of the danger of being killed should she go down into the yards. She finally did go back upon the bridge after she had asked him to furnish her with a chew of tobacco.

She stated that she was from Clarksburg and was hunting for the home of some relatives on the South Side, but did not know their names, apparently. The local police were notified and a search made for the woman on the South Side, but she could not be located and has not been heard from since.

that ever took in a business session the organization, and there seems to be a great amount of added interest manifested in affairs of the circuit. The schedule of dates and stands now is the most compact and complete since the circuit was given birth. All the affairs taken up at the meeting went smoothly and there was little if any discord.

The attempt made by a Russian to steal the fastest trotting stallion in Pennsylvania, was the topic of much conversation. The famous horse so much in demand is owned by J. H. Moore of this city.

J. M. McGraw, superintendent of the McKennan Farms, of which Mr. Moore is proprietor, states yesterday that for the past several months actual efforts have been made to secure the famous stallion, but Mr. Moore turned all offers down, refusing to part with High Admiral.

Can't Help But Admire Babies

Every Woman Casts Loving Glance at the Nestling Cuddled in its Bonnet.

A woman's heart naturally responds to the charm and sweetness of a pretty child, and more so today than ever before since the advent of Mother's Friend.

This is a most wonderful external help to the muscles and tendons. It penetrates the tissues, makes them pliant to readily yield to nature's demand for expansion, so there is no longer a period of pain, discomfort, straining, nausea or other symptoms so often distressing during the anxious weeks of expectancy.

Mother's Friend prepares the system for the coming event, and its use brings comfort, rest and repose during the term. This has a most marked influence upon the child, since it thus inherits a splendid growing system of nerves and digestive function. And particularly to young mothers is this famous remedy of inestimable value. It enables her to preserve her health and strength and she remains a strong mother by having avoided all the suffering and danger that would otherwise accompany such an occasion. Mother's Friend thoroughly lubricates every nerve, tendon and muscle involved and is a sure preventive for caking of the breasts.

You will find this splendid remedy on sale at all drug stores at $1.00 a bottle, and is highly recommended for the purpose. Write Highland Regulator Co., 120 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., and they will send you a sealed, very instructive book for expectant mothers.
